No Cut in Hospital Appropriations.

Harrisburg, July 10.—Chairman Bliss of the House Appropriations committee, who was in Harrisburg yesterday in conference with Governor Stone relative to the appropriations bills passed by the last legislature thinks the private charities of the state need have no fear of a sweeping reduction in their appropriations. Mr. Bliss says it will be easy for the governor to reduce the appropriations to bring the total down to the estimated state revenue of $26,250,000 without injury to any of the charitable institutions of the commonwealth.
