The Clover Club Minstrels.

The Clover Club is determined that their minstrel performance on Lincoln's Birthday shall eclipse any ever held by them before, active rehearsals are going on and tend to show the beauty of the opening overture and of the soloists. Besides several beautiful numbers there will be several distinctively novel features. The costuming will be pretty, the orchestra will be augmented and the scenic features will lend charm to the whole ensemble. The tickets are out to-day and the members are disposing of them. The proceeds will go towards furnishing and maintaining the room at the southeast corner of the new hospital wing. The club should be well patronized. Their efforts heretofore have tended to relieve the needs of those in want for they contributed the proceeds of one of their performances to the poor fund and last year they gave a large sum secured similarly to the Ladies' Auxiliary of the hospital to be expended as they saw fit for the institution. This year the club proposes to enlarge their sphere of usefulness in the line of philanthropy and will leave a lasting monument to their name by their action in providing a bed and room for the sick or injured. All should aid in making this effort a great success.
