FOR THE HOSPITAL

Clerks of Woolworth's Store to Hold a Festival.

This evening and to-morrow evening the clerks of F. W. Woolworth & Co.'s 5 and 10-cent store will hold an ice cream festival for the benefit of the Allentown Hospital on the lot at Twelfth and Hamilton streets on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings. Croxell's Orchestra of twelve pieces has been engaged to furnish the music. They have received generous donations, which will be disposed of at the fair, including $10 from Manager Satterthwaite, a $12 gilt chair from Colonel John W. Sepp of the Krohn Furniture Co., a banquet lamp from Renninger, Nagle & Co., a number of cakes from various bakers, which are to be delivered at Buchman's house at Twelfth and Hamilton streets; some lemons and sugar, which are to be delivered to George's house, at No. 1038 Walnut street; a purse from F. G. Sieger, and some pictures from W. T. Dwyer, manager of the Great Atlantic and Pacific Tea Store.

The clerks are: Jennie Gernert, Mazie Mull, Marion Stone, Helen Haring, Emily Werley, Verletta Uhl, Florence Wescoe, Estella Schaffer, Emma Reiss, Mame Keeley, Hannah Bernhard, Mabel Laury, Bertha Sieger, Mabel Newhard, Cora Smith, Henrietta George, Sallie Hartzell, Carrie Siegfried and Libbie Newhard. The officers are: President, Miss Siegfried; secretary, Miss Uhl; treasurer, Miss Gernert.

The patrons are W. Slocum, Colonel J. H. Harris, Harry Schmidt, Will Fister, E. H. Wetherhold, M. J. Meixell and Frank Shervit.

The tickets are 10 cents. The public is cordially invited to attend the festival. As the festival will be held for a worthy cause it is hoped the attendance will be large, so they can make a satisfactory showing.

A number of young ladies who clerk at the Woolworth store on special occasions will assist the regular clerks.
