

Fundraiser- Woolworths Ice Cream Festival

The Morning Call

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarlyworks.lvhn.org/news-articles-1901>

Part of the Medicine and Health Sciences Commons

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by LVHN Scholarly Works. It has been accepted for inclusion in LVHN Scholarly Works by an authorized administrator. For more information, please contact LibraryServices@lvhn.org.

FOR A WORTHY CAUSE.

The Fair for the Hospital is a Grand Success.

The opening of the festival given by the clerks of Woolworth's 5 and 10-cent store at the corner of Twelfth and Hamilton streets, for the benefit of the hospital was a success beyond all expectations. Crowds were in attendance all evening and large quantities of ice cream and cakes were disposed of.

This evening an elegant chair, fine parlor lamp and two pictures will be chanced off with a fine cake which was donated by Seifing, the baker.

Troxell's Orchestra furnished fine music. This evening additional illumination will be given by gasoline lamps furnished by John R. Gossler.

A pretty booth occupied the centre of the lot. It is decorated with the national colors. Those in attendance are: Mrs. Uhl, Mrs. Weiss, Hannah Bernhard, Henrietta George, Mrs. Siegfried, Mrs. Gernert and Mrs. Newhart. The clerks act as waiters. The ladies request that all donations of cakes be left at Mrs. Buchman's residence, corner Twelfth and Hamilton street. The public is cordially invited to attend the festival. It will be concluded this evening.