Money for the Hospital.

The fair held by Woolworth's clerks netted over $200 for the hospital. The money will be used to furnish a room in the Mosser wing now being built by Contractor J. F. Martz. The clerks desire to thank the public for liberal patronage, and different parties for their kindness in donating articles.

The motormen and conductors' excursion to Atlantic City on Sunday netted $151.05 for the benefit of the hospital. The money was yesterday handed over to the hospital treasurer. The amount is a very creditable one, considering the weather of Sunday.
