MR. MERTZ IS APPRECIATIVE.

He Speaks Kind Words for the Allentown Hospital and Attaches.

To the Editor of the "Morning Call:"—Please allow me space in your paper to give public expression to my appreciation for the scientific and kind treatment I received at the Allentown Hospital recently, the time I suffered with a badly injured foot, the result of a fall. I not only recovered thoroughly and quickly under the skill of Dr. Schaeffer and the head nurse, Miss Haring, but I obtained a knowledge of the benefits of the hospital that I wish all of our citizens could experience. With it none would fail to take advantage and even create opportunities to advance its interests.

In my humble opinion the Allentown Hospital is a God-send to the residents of Allentown and vicinity, the staff of physicians and nurses the equal in skill of those of similar institutions anywhere, and their kindness to the afflicted really a delight, which goes far to lessen the burden of both patients and their friends. With thanks for the privilege you afford me, I am

Yours truly,
FRANCIS S. MERTZ.
