

Donations needed- Hospital donation day church services

The Morning Call

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarlyworks.lvhn.org/news-articles-1901>

Part of the Medicine and Health Sciences Commons

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by LVHN Scholarly Works. It has been accepted for inclusion in LVHN Scholarly Works by an authorized administrator. For more information, please contact LibraryServices@lvhn.org.

Special Service.

To-morrow evening at 7.30 o'clock a special Thanksgiving service will be held in Salem Reformed Church, with a brief sermon by the pastor. The offerings will be devoted to the Allentown Hospital. All members and friends of the church are cordially invited to attend. The consistory will meet immediately after the services.

Union Services Again.

It has been the custom for many years for St. Paul's Lutheran and Zion's Reformed congregation to have union services on Thanksgiving Day. This year the services will be held in the Zion's Reformed Church on Thursday at 10 a. m. Rev. George A. Griess of St. Paul's Lutheran will preach the sermon. Both congregations and their friends have cordial invitations. The offerings of the day will be for the Allentown Hospital.

Special Thanksgiving Service.

To-morrow evening it will be a year since the big mortgage was burned in Salem Reformed chapel. At that time an immense audience was present to witness the sight. This year a special thanksgiving service will be held for the benefit of the Allentown Hospital and a program of varied interest is in process of preparation. All who can should attend this service and bring an offering for a most worthy institution. The hospital is one of the grandest charities in the city, and those citizens whose lives have been spared through the skill of the able staff and kind nurses, and all who have been so blessed as not to need their services, should come into the sanctuary with liberal gifts. All are welcome.