

Hospital Fair Terminated

The Morning Call

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarlyworks.lvhn.org/historicalarchives>

Part of the Medicine and Health Sciences Commons

Let us know how access to this document benefits you

Published In/Presented At

Hospital fair terminated. (1901, June 3). The Morning Call.

This Newspaper is brought to you for free and open access by LVHN Scholarly Works. It has been accepted for inclusion in LVHN Scholarly Works by an authorized administrator. For more information, please contact LibraryServices@lvhn.org.

HOSPITAL FAIR TERMINATED

The Bazaar in Lehigh Valley Hall Under the Auspices of the Ladies' Auxiliary Came to a Close on Saturday Evening When There Was Another Big Attendance—Handsome Prizes Awarded.

The hospital bazaar closed a most successful week on Saturday night with an attendance, which fully equalled the phenomenal attendance of Thursday evening. The booths were entirely sold out at an early hour, a few articles in the King's Daughters' booth alone remaining. The afternoon was Children's Day, and large crowds of youngsters enjoyed themselves in the hall.

The ladies of the Auxiliary were highly pleased with the success of the bazaar, but, tired in body and spirit, were really rejoiced when the win-up came.

Various donations were made to the booths for Saturday such as 500 carnations to the flower booth from E. N. Kroninger; a large white and gold vase, a bust and a lot of miscellaneous articles for the fish pond, Mrs. Robert Iredell; three large stone water jugs from Mr. Silberstein; 100 boxes of biscuits from the National Biscuit Company. The 150 carnations which were announced on Saturday to have been received from Albert Yeager, were donated by Andrew Yeager.

These prizes were drawn in the fish pond during the afternoon: Moquette rug, from Shimer, Laub & Weaver, by Helen Ochs; tobacco jar, from E. H. Wetherhold, by Henry Yingling; reed tabourette, from C. A. Dorney, by I. E. Butz. Other prizes secured in the pond were a gold ring with emerald setting, from Mrs. Jacob W. Grim, by Mrs. Harvey Horlacher; a leather chatelaine, from A. H. Sieger, by Lulu Hartshaw; a toy piano, from G. C. Aschbach, by Evelyn Zeldenrust. In addition to these many other prizes which had been donated by jewelers were drawn from the pond, but the attendants failed to learn of the identity of the fortunate parties.

A great deal of interest centred in the drawings. Jacob Dale was selected by the ladies to draw the lucky numbers. The doll donated by the wife of Governor Stone was lucky numbers. The doll donated by Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt, by Miss Helen Erdman, who guessed the doll's name, "Flora;" kodak camera, No. 1, by Mrs. Harry Eckert; kodak camera, No. 2, Miss Mary E. Reninger; Allentown Hospital doll, Mrs. Theodore Mertz; five bottles of cologne, H. K. Miller, Ed. Diehl, M. Dillinger, Ed. Diehl, Cora Clauser; hand-painted china smoking set, J. Herbert Kohler; hanging basket filled with vines and ornamental plants, Miriam Stillwagen, a palm, Mabel Thomas; white embroidered apron, Lilly Trexler; beaded chatelaine made by Mrs. R. Frank Stine, won by Cora Trexler; cushion, A. M. Ruhe; Battenburg centre piece, Lizzie H. Wagner; tea service, donated by Ben. Nuding, won by H. K. Miller; rocking chair, from Allentown Furniture Company, Mrs. Frank Koch; oil painting, Mrs. R. S. Leisenring; large chocolate cake, from Mrs. Schraden, by F. G. Geiger, and a large iced cake from Peters & Jacoby, by Miss Haring, head nurse at the hospital. As a consequence of Miss Haring's good fortune, those patients at the hospital, whose diet will allow such dainties, feasted royally yesterday.