

11 new internes at the Allentown Hospital today

The Morning Call

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarlyworks.lvhn.org/historicalarchives>

Let us know how access to this document benefits you

Published In/Presented At

11 new internes at the Allentown Hospital today. (1938, July 1). The Morning Call.

This Newspaper is brought to you for free and open access by LVHN Scholarly Works. It has been accepted for inclusion in LVHN Scholarly Works by an authorized administrator. For more information, please contact LibraryServices@lvhn.org.

11 New Internes At the Allentown Hospital Today

Five of Those Starting Duties Are from This City

Eleven new internes, five of them from Allentown, will start their duties today at the Allentown hospital.

At the same time, Dr. R. J. Turnbach of Hazleton, an interne since July 1, 1937, will assume the position of chief resident medical physician. Dr. Walter T. Becker of Cedarsburg, Wis., occupies the surgical residency at the hospital.

The new internes are:

Robert H. Dillcher, 313 S. 17th St., Allentown, of the University of Pennsylvania Medical college.

Morton I. Silverman, 121 S. 17th St., Allentown, of the University of Pennsylvania Medical college.

Lewis F. Sprague, 121 N. West St., Allentown, of the University of Virginia Medical college.

John J. Sassaman, 1807 Allen St., Allentown, of the Hahnemann Medical school.

J. Kenneth Miller, 439 Turner St., Allentown, dental interne.

Charles F. Johnson, Quakertown, of the University of Pennsylvania Medical college.

Edgar E. Cleaver, Palm, University of Pennsylvania Medical college.

Ruth Leymeister, Orwigsburg, of Temple University Medical school.

William F. Weisel Jr., Quakertown, of Temple University Medical school.

Otis M. Eves, Millville, of Temple University Medical school.

Ethan L. Trexler, Kempton, of Hahnemann Medical school.