

$35 for the hospital

The Morning Call

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarlyworks.lvhn.org/historicalarchives>

Part of the Medicine and Health Sciences Commons

Published In/Presented At

$35 for the hospital. (1899, February 4). The Morning Call.

This Newspaper is brought to you for free and open access by LVHN Scholarly Works. It has been accepted for inclusion in LVHN Scholarly Works by an authorized administrator. For more information, please contact LibraryServices@lvhn.org.

$35 FOR THE HOSPITAL.

Captain Schaadt Sends $25 and Mrs. Schaadt $10.

This week the "Morning Call" reminded subscribers to the fund started in 1891 for the Allentown Hospital that now was an appropriate time to pay in the money, as the building was nearing completion and the money was needed. The following letter is self explanatory and shows responses to the amount of $35. Let others follow suit:

ALLENTOWN, February 3, 1899.

"CALL PUBLISHING COMPANY,

Mr. D. A. Miller, Manager.

Dear Sir:—The editorial in the "Call" of yesterday on the Allentown Hospital reminds me that quite a long time ago I subscribed $25 to the hospital building fund originated by your paper, which I have not yet paid, as no one has called for it. At the same time Mrs. Schaadt subscribed $10. I now beg to enclose you my personal check, No. 2199, for $25, as well as Mrs. Schaadt's check, No. 751, for $10, to cover these two subscriptions. Kindly acknowledge their receipt.

Yours truly,

J. L. SCHAADT.