The Hospital Benefit Performance.

"The Octoroon" on Saturday night, to be played by the Emerald Dramatic Company in Music Hall, for the benefit of the Allentown Hospital Fund should be liberally patronized. The erection of a hospital in our growing city seems to meet with the approval of all our citizens, and as the dramatic company has offered its services in assisting this very charitable purpose they should be patronized on Saturday evening to the extent that their labors may be rewarded by the return of a handsome sum to the fund for the erection of our hospital for which a charter was granted in court on Monday.
