Senior Resident Physician.

Dr. John T. Eckert, of Allentown, will be senior resident physician at the Allentown Hospital after Monday. He is one of this year's graduates of the University of Pennsylvania. He is a graduate of Muhlenberg College, class of 1899. He was a close and attentive student at the university. Dr. Eckert is a son of Mrs. Hannah Eckert, of No. 335 North Seventh street. Arrangements are on foot for an ambulance service with headquarters at the hospital, and a proposition will probably be made to councils to have the city ambulance located there. In that event one of the physicians would go out on the ambulance to meet all calls.
