A Non-Sectarian Institution.

The board of trustees of the Allentown Hospital Association at its regular monthly meeting held on the tenth inst., unanimously resolved that no examinations or certificates, other than those provided by the rules and regulations of the institution, will be received or considered in examining applicants for the Nurses' Training School. The institution is founded on purely non-sectarian lines and will be rigidly held there.

By order of the board of trustees of the Allentown Hospital Association.

C. S. MARTIN,

Secretary.
