The Allentown Morning Call – Morning Critic – 11-1-1894

The Allentown Morning Call – Morning Critic 10-13-1894 to 11-2-1894

10-13-1894

THEY had a Donation Day at the Easton Hospital the other day. Here in Allentown—well, we have no hospital for which to have a Donation Day.

10-15-1894

“ALLENTOWN wants a hospital,” says the Hazleton Plain-Speaker. Yes, and if the people don’t respond Allentown will be wanting a long time to come.

10-20-1894

CARBONDALE is booming a big hospital benefit. Allentown might do the same—provided we had a hospital for which to boom a benefit.

11-2-1894

DON’T fail to attend the benefit for the THE MORNING CRITIC hospital fund. It is for a worthy cause and you will be highly entertained. Leland T. Powers is an impersonator of rare merit. At Central Market Hall on Friday evening, November 9.
