

Mr. Buckley's offer: The manager of the food exposition has a scheme to help

The Morning Call

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarlyworks.lvhn.org/historicalarchives>

Part of the Medicine and Health Sciences Commons

Published In/Presented At

Mr. Buckley's offer: The manager of the food exposition has a scheme to help. (1894, November 13). The Morning Call.

This Newspaper is brought to you for free and open access by LVHN Scholarly Works. It has been accepted for inclusion in LVHN Scholarly Works by an authorized administrator. For more information, please contact LibraryServices@lvhn.org.

MR. BUCKLEY'S OFFER

The Manager of the Food Exposition Has a Scheme to Help

THE CRITIC HOSPITAL FUND

He Has Kindly Given a Booth Where Articles Are to be Disposed of For the Benefit of a Most Humane Cause.

There will be a hospital in Allentown, and, though everybody is not putting their shoulder to the wheel, there are some energetic people at work and they are helping to swell THE MORNING CRITIC fund. Manager Buckley, of the Food Exposition, has generously offered to place at the disposal of kind people who will take charge of it a pretty booth from which will be sold different articles, the receipts from the sale of which will be added to the amount already subscribed to THE MORNING CRITIC Hospital Fund.

The names of the ladies who will aid in the matter will be published to-morrow. Much praise is due Manager Buckley, whose popularity is increasing daily.

Next Saturday will be red-ticket day at the Food Exposition. A proportion of the money realized from the sale of tickets will go to THE MORNING CRITIC hospital fund. Another evidence of the genuine liberality of Manager Buckley. Suffering humanity will have an hospital in Allentown.

