Made a Sensation.

From the Stroudsburg Jeffersonian.

THE MORNING CRITIC, published at Allentown, Pa., made quite a sensation by printing its entire edition on the 19th inst. in red. THE CRITIC is earnestly engaged in raising a hospital fund. By arrangement of the Food Exposition now going on in that city, it was agreed that every red ticket sold on the 19th was to go to the support of the hospital. The red sheet was designed to be an appeal to the good people of Allentown to help along the hospital fund. The plan appears to have worked well.
