The Christmas putz and tree which the members of the Allen Athletic Association are preparing in their spacious hall for the benefit of THE MORNING CRITIC hospital fund is almost completed. It will be a magnificent sight and the boys are sparing neither time nor expense in order to make it a rousing success. This will be an opportunity for the people of Allentown to do something for the noblest of charities and at the same time receive entertainment and pleasure.

The Allen Athletic Association should be encouraged in its endeavor to do something for THE MORNING CRITIC hospital fund. A large putz and Christmas tree will be erected in their hall during the holidays and the proceeds will go to the fund above named. If everybody would take a like interest in the matter the required amount would soon be raised and the hospital would be an assured fact.

JOHN SIEGER'S PUTZ.

It Will be the Most Magnificent He Ever Made.

The home of John J. Sieger, the painter, of No. 216 North Sixth street, was visited by a MORNING CRITIC man last evening, who was shown the elegant Christmas putz that Mr. Sieger is putting up for the entertainment of the public.

Mr. Sieger has always had the reputation of preparing fine putzes, but the one of this year will eclipse all former efforts. Many new ideas and attractions await those whose pleasure it will be to witness it. No admission will be charged. Everybody will be welcome. THE MORNING CRITIC has been allowed the privilege of placing a box in the room for voluntary contributions to the hospital fund.

A full description will be given later. The putz must be seen to be appreciated. Those who have contributed to make the putz a success will be mentioned later. The public will be admitted on Christmas evening after 7 o'clock, on the following day at 2 in the afternoon and in the evening and thereafter evenings until New Year's. Much credit is due Mr. Sieger, whose labors are gratuitously rendered, and who is anxious to see THE MORNING CRITIC hospital fund increased.
