A SUBSTANTIAL LIFT

The Allen Athletic Association
Swells the Hospital Fund.

$126.01 THE AMOUNT GIVEN

It Was Realized Through the Christmas Putz--The Returns Are Not Yet All In--The Figures May Go Higher.

The committee of the Allen Athletic Association that had charge of the Christmas putz held during the holidays for the benefit of the MORNING CALL hospital fund made their report last night. It is as follows: Total attendance, 1998 contribution box, $13.39; package party, $10.72; money turned over to the MORNING CALL hospital fund, $126.01.

The boys regret to say that there are still some parties who volunteered their services to dispose of tickets, but who have failed to put in an appearance or send in a report. Their names will be withheld, however, in hopes that they will give an account of themselves shortly. The receipts will be turned in as received.

The members of the association deserve great praise for the pains and expense they underwent to swell the fund to erect a hospital. They did remarkably well. If every other organization in town would do their share as the Allen boys have done the hospital would soon be built.

All honor to the members of the Allen Athletic Association!
