MR. FRY'S CONTRIBUTION.

A Cigar Manufacturer Gives $5 to the Hospital Fund.

Rome wasn't built in a day. Neither can it be expected that the MORNING CALL hospital fund will be raised in a few days. It takes time; but, like the famous Eli, the fund is "gittin' thar." People are beginning to realize how necessary it is to have a hospital, and after it is built they'll wonder how in the world they managed to get along without it. But that's human nature.

Last evening a subscription of $5 was received from George C. Fry, the cigar manufacturer at No. 925 Hamilton street. Mr. Fry's letter is self-explanatory:

To the Publishers of the MORNING CALL:

GENTLEMEN:—In view of the fact that so many business men and others of all classes are continually calling at my store for cigars in support of myself and family, I keenly feel it my duty to subscribe five dollars ($5.00) towards swelling "The Hospital Fund," which is a grand and praiseworthy undertaking on your part. Thanking you for giving me ample time to raise the amount, I remain,

Yours Respectfully,

Cigar Mfr.

GEO. C. FRY.
