ANOTHER CONTRIBUTION.

Allen Camp, No. 6, Sons of Veterans, Gives $5 to the Hospital Fund.

Interest in the project to build a hospital increases. At a meeting of Allen Camp, No. 6, Sons of Veterans, held last evening, it was voted to contribute $5 to the MORNING CALL Hospital Fund. This makes the third contribution to this worthwhile of causes this week. On Monday morning announcement was made that the committee which had in charge the late Purim Ball had given $20 and yesterday the MORNING CALL acknowledged a gift of $10 from Milton Aborn, of the Bijou Opera Company, now playing a week's engagement at the Academy. To-day Allen Camp, No. 6, falls into line.

That's a pretty good record for three days, and it is to be hoped that other organizations will do likewise. It would be a great pleasure to acknowledge the receipt of a donation each day.

To Allen Camp, No. 6, the MORNING CALL extends its sincere thanks. The action of its members shows that they recognize the need of such an institution.
