Our Hospital Concerts.

Such a combination of inducements to patronize a noble charity as that offered by the hospital concerts on Tuesday night rarely appeals to the public. First, the entire proceeds go to the hospital fund and, therefore, should the concerts be an ordinary one, there would be no room for complaint. But, secondly, the concerts will be worth all they cost. The names of Profs. Kingler and Marks are satisfactory guarantees of excellence. The Allentown Band, the Euterpean Club and the Oratorio Society never disappoint our high expectations. Be sure to buy a ticket even if you can not use it.
