Donations for the Hospital Fair Will be Thankfully Received.

Any one wishing to make a donation to the hospital fair will please send it to the proper chairman of the different booths. The MORNING CALL hopes the people of Allentown and vicinity will take an interest and contribute either material or money. The chairmen of the different booths are as follows: Refreshments, Mrs. Menges; ice cream, Mrs. H. Hersh; cakes, Mrs. W. Anewalt; fancy work, Mrs. W. R. Yeager; domestic, Miss A. Schock; Japanese, Mrs. John Stopp; flower, Mrs. R. S. Lelsenring; candy, Mrs. James Moore; lemonade, Mrs. Mary Hoats; fishing, Mrs. J. P. Wesner; dolls, Mrs. M. N. Bernhard; children's, Mrs. L. Well.

The fair will be opened May 2 at 7 p. m. with an address by Mayor Lewis. The band will render selections. A program has been arranged for every evening. There will be fifteen booths and the committee feels sure that time can be profitably spent by going there and helping the cause. The different committees have been hard at work to make it as attractive as possible.
