THE BIG FAIR OPENS TO-NIGHT

All the Booths in Market Hall Are Now Ready and Present a Very Handsome Appearance.

THE BAZAAR TO BE OPENED WITH IMPRESSIVE CEREMONIES

The People of Allentown and Surrounding Towns Should Turn Out in Large Numbers and Give the Ladies Encouragement in the Noble Work Which They Have Undertaken—"The Hospital Bulletin" Will be Sold on the Streets by Boys To-day at Five Cents a Copy—Do Not Fail to Buy Several Copies.

This evening the hospital fair will be formally opened in Market Hall with fitting ceremonies. All the booths now present a handsome appearance and will be well stocked with all kinds of goods that will be for sale. The ladies at the fish pond desire it especially mentioned that there is a well stocked stock of fish.

"The Hospital Bulletin," which is the work of William J. Clewell, will be issued from the MORNING CALL press this morning and will be sold by boys at 5 cents a copy to-day.
