FOR THE HOSPITAL

A Strawberry and Ice Cream Festival Opening Last Evening.

IN ASSOCIATION HALL

The Attendance Was Not So Large as Expected—Everybody Should Patronize This Worthy Cause—Those in Charge.

The strawberry and ice cream festival of the Ladies' Auxillary of the Hospital Association opened in Y. M. C. A. Hall last evening. While a large number of tickets had been sold the attendance was not very large, but it is hoped the attendance will be increased this evening and to-morrow. The object is certainly a worthy one and the festival will be a treat for anybody attending. The stage is handsomely decorated with flowers and greens and the prettiest booth is the lemonade well. This is in yellow and white and on the inside are seven young women who are only too glad to serve your lemonade for a nickel. A string orchestra furnished the music. This evening, to-morrow afternoon and evening the festival will be open and the admission is practically free because you are entitled to a plate of cream. The following are in charge of the festival:
