For a Good Cause.

C. S. Reed, manager for the Grand Union Tea Company, has published a neat "Up-to-da'e Cook Book." The book contains sixty-four pages and is full of receipts that every housewife wants to have within reaching distance. An edition of 5000 copies has been published, and these are given gratis to the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Allentown Hospital. The women will next week place the books on sale and thus hope to realize $500. Mr. Reed deserves considerable credit for the amount of work he put upon the book, and, as it will be the means of adding several hundred dollars to the funds of the hospital association, his labor will not go unappreciated.
