FOR A MOST WORTHY CAUSE

The Fair For the Benefit of the Allentown Hospital.

IN CENTRAL MARKET HALL

It is Now in Full Sway and the Ladies Should be Encouraged in the Noble Work They Have Undertaken—The Program.

The attendance at the hospital fair last evening might have been better, but, considering the inclement weather the various attendants felt much encouraged. On account of the great amount of work the various members of the committee have not been able to ask all people who would be likely contributors. The latter shall feel free to bring whatever they can.

Chief Grim had Elias Gildner, of the America Hose Company, there yesterday so as to be on hand in case of a fire.

Edward Rauney, of the Hotel Allen was awarded the first prize at the fishing booth a silver napkin ring, donated by Professor W. A. Weidner. The second prize was received by Edward Butz. It is an individual salt cellar set.

At the doll booth there is a very interesting exhibit of dolls presented by the Pottstown Hospital; St. Luke's, St. Andrews' Hospital, of Philadelphia; Kensington Hospital, of New York; Reading Hospital and the Wilkes-Barre City Hospital. Each doll is dressed in the garb of the nurses at the hospital it represents and a card is posted inscribed "Guess the Names." The Mercury and Allen Wheelmen have each donated a doll.

The Clover Club Orchestra rendered a fine program of Music last evening. This program was rendered:

- March, "Girl of 99".....Zukel
- Waltzes, "Prisoner of Zenda".....Witmark
- "A Cluster of Peaches" (latest).....Beyer
- "Chilian Dance Manana".....Missud
- March, "The Trolley Party".....Whitney
- "Second Battalion March" (new).....Gillis
- Overture, "Bridal Rose".....Larabee
- "Sylvan Reverie Waltzes" (new).....Geary
- "Popular Pebbles" (medley).....Beyer
- Galop.....Bennett

This evening from 5 to 9 a Martha Washington tea will be given in the big refreshment stand. The bill of fare includes oysters, Fastnacht cakes and tea or coffee. Each guest will retain his or her cup and saucer as a souvenir. The tickets for this tea party all twenty-five cents. On Thursday evening from 5 to 8 a chicken and waffle supper will be served, for which tickets will be sold for twenty-five cents.

Mrs. Yeager, of the fancy work booth, has received 300 yards of ribbon from Mr. Zinderstine, a check for $25 from Mr. Soleliac, $15 worth of Lundborg's cologne, belts, penwipers, picture frames from Mr. Osborne, of New York, and besides the city merchants have been very liberal.

The art booth has received a $40. picture from Earle and one from Low, of Philadelphia, and another from Caldwell; chinaware from Higgins & Seiter; china set from Wamamaker's.

At the candy booth John Bowen and the Allentown Candy Manufacturing Company were the biggest donators.

Donations of chickens are wanted. Those having any to spare will kindly send them to the hall to-morrow evening or to-morrow morning.
