

Has passed into history: The hospital fair came to a close Saturday night

The Morning Call

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarlyworks.lvhn.org/historicalarchives>

Part of the Medicine and Health Sciences Commons

Let us know how access to this document benefits you

Published In/Presented At

Has passed into history: The hospital fair came to a close Saturday night. (1898, February 29). The Morning Call.

This Newspaper is brought to you for free and open access by LVHN Scholarly Works. It has been accepted for inclusion in LVHN Scholarly Works by an authorized administrator. For more information, please contact LibraryServices@lvhn.org.

HAS PASSED INTO HISTORY

The Hospital Fair Came to a Close
Saturday Night.

THREE THOUSAND PRESENT

The Catasauqua Band Gave a Delightful Concert—Many Prizes Were Announced—The Names of the Successful Ones.

The hospital fair in Market Hall came to a close on Saturday evening with the largest attendance of the week. There were possibly 3000 people there during the evening. The door receipts alone amounted to $151.62. It is not yet known what the total receipts of the fair are, as not all the reports have been received. On Thursday the Ladies' Auxiliary will have a meeting, and then the total receipts of profits will be announced. While the hospital has been a big success there is some doubt whether the total receipts will sum up more than last year. It is hoped, of course, they will. There were about 235 helpers and each of these paid twenty-five cents for a week's admission. Their good work certainly deserves the highest praise.

THE PRIZE WINNERS.

The following were the winners of the prizes: No. 109, Mrs. Cyrus Kuntz, drew large cake, donated by Sober's bakery, of Bethlehem; No. 61, Mrs. Dr. H. S. Seip, drew picture donated by Earle's galleries, Philadelphia; No. 264, Mrs. L. Fenstermacher, No. 1003 Hamilton street, drew hand-painted chop dish, donated by Mrs. James Seagreaves; No. 1, Will Bonnevill, drew the Bulgarian sofa cushion, donated by Mrs. George Ruhe; No. 47, Miss Mary Crowley, drew the blue puffed sofa cushion, donated by H. Stillwagen & Co., Allentown; No. 167, Mrs. J. Schall, No. 36 North Sixth street, drew the black satin corset, donated by Langdon, Bachelor & Co., of New York; No. 74, Charles F. Robert, No. 521 North Law street, drew the yellow satin pin cushion, donated by Mrs. Carrie Schnurman; No. 78, Reuben P. Steckel, drew the nurse doll from the Pottstown Hospital, Pottstown; No. 42, Mrs. George Seagreaves, drew the mandolin, donated by Fred F. Kramer; No. 149 Mrs. Zettlemoyer, North Seventh street, drew the turkey, donated by David Greisemer; No. 296, Miss Emily Stuckert, drew the guitar, donated by Fred F. Kramer; No. 84, J. M. Koehler, drew the Allen doll, donated by the Allen Wheelmen; No. 92, George Zimmerman, of the Chronicle and News, drew the ton of coal, donated by Tilghman H. Bachman; No. 295, S. Hoffman, of Hess Bros., drew the Mercury doll, donated by the Mercury Wheelmen; No. 1, George Nicholas, Bethlehem, drew white organdie apron, donated by Miss Stella Wasser; No. 185, Miss Annie Roth, North Third street, drew white hemstitched apron made by Miss Clara Kistler; No. 343, Christine Bernhard, drew the doll house, donated by the Misses Keck, North Sixth street; No. 119, Miss Susie Jones, No. 133

North Eighth street, drew the canary bird and cage, donated by Jacob W. Grim; No. 53, Miss Emma Nonnemacher, No. 426 Turner street, drew the hand-painted miniature, donated by Miss Ella Hergesheimer; No. 195, Miss Lillie Hohl, Catasauqua, drew the nurse doll from St. Andrew's Hospital, New York; No. 22, George Helwig, drew the nurse doll from the Reading Hospital, Reading; No. 26, J. W. Fuller, Jr., of Catasauqua, drew the Kentia palm; No. 64, Miss Jennie Ellenbogen, drew the fan palm.

The Catasauqua Band gave a very fine concert. The program was published on Saturday morning. The band drew an immense crowd and it must be credited that the Iron Borough has one of the finest bands in the valley. The band brought with it a large number of people from up the valley.

A ladies' muff bearing the clothing-room check No. 135, was left behind. A silk umbrella was also found, and these articles, with a number of minor ones, may be gotten at the office of John R. Gossler Oil Company, on South Eighth street. A large number of articles that had been lost and found were returned upon the owners proving property at headquarters. Sixteen bushels of peanuts were unshelled and salted by the ladies for the fair. All were disposed of, of course.