

Festival for the hospital [ladies' auxiliary strawberry festival]

The Morning Call

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarlyworks.lvhn.org/historicalarchives>

Part of the Medicine and Health Sciences Commons

Let us know how access to this document benefits you

Published In/Presented At

Festival for the hospital. (1899, May 26). The Morning Call.

This Newspaper is brought to you for free and open access by LVHN Scholarly Works. It has been accepted for inclusion in LVHN Scholarly Works by an authorized administrator. For more information, please contact LibraryServices@lvhn.org.

FESTIVAL FOR THE HOSPITAL

The strawberry and ice cream festival in Kleppinger's Hall held last evening under the auspices of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Hospital Association proved a grand success. The two large rooms in the building were crowded with people to such an extent that it was almost impossible to serve all. However, it was a charitable crowd and a sort of a line was formed and as those satisfied with refreshments moved out others moved in to take their places.

One room was decorated in red and white and the other in cerise and white. There were two lemonade tables at which presided the members of the Ever Ready Circle of King's Daughters. At the peanut table were the Faithful Workers. The candy table was in charge of the Golden Cross Circle and the Circle of the Silver Cross, King's Daughters. The cake table was in charge of the Ladies' Auxiliary. The women donated the cakes and also the berries.

A number of young women active in charity work served the cream and berries. Buff's Orchestra furnished the music. There were nearly a thousand tickets sold, and these, with the extras, will easily net a hundred dollars and more.

After the festival the following young people who assisted at the affair enjoyed a dance: Misses Lena Kauffman, Helen Keck, Mabel Stine, Bessie Baker, Bessie Hartzell, Hattie Blank, Allen V. Heyl, Lewis Repass, Frank N. D. Buchman, R. E. Hartzell, Harry Haas, Arthur Keller, O. R. B. Ledy.