TO SING FOR CHARITY.

Saengerbund to Give a Concert for the Hospital

On Monday, July 3, Lehigh Saengerbund will give a vocal and instrumental concert in the Academy for the benefit of the Allentown Hospital. They will have a chorus of about 200 voices, and there will be a specially-drilled orchestra of twenty-three pieces under the direction of Professor Kline.

Among the visiting societies who will participate are New York, Brooklyn, College Point, Lehigh, Mauch Chunk, Easton, Bethlehem and Macungie. The admission price for reserved seats will be fifty cents, so as to bring it within the reach of all. The public will be kept posted through the newspapers, the official announcement appearing in a few days.

The day following, on the Fourth, the various singing societies will picnic at Dorney's Fish Weir, where it will be a day of music and song.
