Rev. Dr. Singmaster's Report.

In the report which Rev. Dr. J. A. Singmaster, of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, this city, made to the general synod last week, are found these figures: Collected during the past year by members of St. Paul's for purely benevolent purposes, $2,205, including $400 for the hospital. At the recent harvest home services—the collection amounted to $541. In addition to these amounts large sums were collected for the general expenses of the church.
