Three Liberal Offers.

Hon. Jeremiah Roth has offered to present to the Allentown Hospital Association one of his large thoroughbred steers, to be chanced off or guessed for as to weight, on the occasion of the fair to be held for the benefit of the hospital next May. W. G. Dwyer, of the Great Atlantic and Pacific Tea Company, has also offered to supply all the coffee and tea needed for the first week of the fair. The fair is to last two weeks. Colonel Francis Daeufer has offered to contribute a check for $25 to the cause.
