FOR THE HOSPITAL.

An Entertainment and Comedy to be Given for the Hospital's Benefit.

On Wednesday, September 5, afternoon and evening, the members of the Young Ladies' Four-Leaf Clover Club will render an entertainment and comedy, entitled "The Hoyden," in Y. M. C. A. Hall. This entertainment will be given entirely for the benefit of the Allentown Hospital and the members of the club will in no way profit by it. The members of the club are Misses Lillie Friedman, president; Haydee Elstein, treasurer; Grace Miller, Rachael Friedman, Martha Witmer, Anna Marcus, Hazel Andrews, Miriam Erdman. The colors of the organization are navy blue and canary, and these will be worn by all who sell tickets so that they may be readily recognized by the public.

These young ladies are very enthusiastic in the project and as all are accomplished in this line of work, a delightful entertainment may be looked for. The object is a worthy one and the club deserves the liberal patronage of the public.
