"BEN HUR" ILLUSTRATED.

Brilliant, Interesting, Instructive Lecture at the Lyric Wednesday Evening.

Wednesday evening at the Lyric Theatre, under the auspices of the Ladies' Auxiliary, Allentown Hospital, will be given a brilliant, interesting and instructive lecture, a tale of the Christ, "Ben Hur," by Rev. A. G. Rogers, illustrated with over 100 colored views. Dr. Rogers has delivered the lecture with much success over eighty times in the largest cities. The Lyric should contain a very large audience for a double purpose—to enjoy the lecture and to aid the hospital.

Following are a few of many endorsements: "Ben Hur, from the Wise Men to the Crucifixion, and the empty Tomb in Joseph's Garden, and the Ascension," so beautifully illustrated, impresses everybody. An evening with "Ben Hur," such as we have had, is enjoyable and profitable. —Lutheran Observer, 1897. Rev. J. J. Muir, D. D. The lecture made a most excellent impression. Rev. C. L. Pate. The large audience was spellbound for two hours. Dr. J. E. Butler, Lutheran. I am glad the demand for "Ben Hur" continues. To hear the recital by Dr.
