THE HOSPITAL BAZAAR

Quite a Number of People Were Present Last Evening.

MANY MORE SHOULD ATTEND

This Object is a Worthy One and Should be Liberally Patronized by the People of Allentown—
Prize Winners Last Night.

The hospital bazaar last evening attracted quite a number of people though not as many as there should have been. The attendance should be better. All the booths report good receipts, but they should be higher. Klingler's Orchestra furnished the music. To-morrow night the Lehigh Saengerbund will sing, Thursday evening there will be a genuine negro cake walk, Friday evening the Lehigh Consultory, No. 4, which is one of the best-drilled bodies in the city, will give an exhibition drill, and on Saturday evening the Muhlenberg students will sing.

On Memorial Day the doors will not be open excepting in the evening and on Saturday afternoon the children will have to pay only five cents admission.

The doll's trunk drawn yesterday afternoon by Mary Guenther was donated by L. A. T. Wartman Company. The silver butter knife drawn by Mary Samuels was donated by a friend. The work basket drawn by Annie Powell was donated by J. M. Grimley. Mrs. G. Vogel, Mrs. Ed. Diehl and Mrs. Matilda Voght drew cakes.

The Allentown Ice Company is supplying all the ice for this week's use. Bechtel & Landis donated twenty-two pounds of peanut taffy and roasted twenty-five bushels of peanuts.
