

Ladies Hospital Auxiliary- Bazaar

The Morning Call

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarlyworks.lvhn.org/historicalarchives>

Part of the Medicine and Health Sciences Commons

Published In/Presented At

Ladies Hospital Auxiliary- Bazaar. (1901, June 1). The Morning Call.

This Newspaper is brought to you for free and open access by LVHN Scholarly Works. It has been accepted for inclusion in LVHN Scholarly Works by an authorized administrator. For more information, please contact LibraryServices@lvhn.org.

THE HOSPITAL FAIR.

There Was a Large Attendance Last Evening.

Last evening's attendance at the hospital bazaar in Lehigh Valley Hall was large, quite up to the mark of Memorial Day. The special attraction was exhibition drill given by Lehigh Consultory, Knights of Friendship, assisted by members of Washington Chamber. The Pioneer Drum Corps furnished music for the drill and the short street parade which preceded it. The knights were highly praised for the excellent exhibition.

The ladies received a donation of fifty-four pounds of peanut candy from J. C. Moore and from the Young Men's Temperance Society 300 packages of candy. A large lot of cut flowers and potted plants were received from George Fetzer. This evening the Muhlenberg College Glee Club will give a concert. All chance contests will be closed at 9 o'clock. A gold ring with emerald setting was donated by Mrs. Jacob W. Grim as a prize for the fish pond. Special prizes for the children will be put in the pond this afternoon. Yesterday Miss Carrie Lynn drew the inkstand donated by W. H. Apple. At the cake walks prizes were won by Mrs. A. E. Bittner, Mr. and Mrs. James Webb, Mrs. O. H. Laub and Mrs. George Eckert. An extra supply of cakes, doughnuts and home-made bread will be on sale to-day and the ladies are requested to buy these articles instead of baking to-day.

A number of lost articles have been found and the owners can secure them at the office. The two purses lost on Thursday evening were found and returned to the owners. The last opportunity to visit the fair will be given to-night and it is hoped the attendance will be a record breaker.