THE HOSPITAL BAZAAR.

Quite a Number of Liberal Contributions Received Yesterday.

The young ladies' hospital bazaar committee were very fortunate yesterday in securing contributions from many of their friends, whom they wish to thank through the columns of the "Morning Call." The receipts for yesterday were $10.70 and the total so far is $27.20. The fair will be open every day this week at the corner of Twelfth and Walnut streets, where the committee will gladly take charge of any contributions entrusted in their care. They need candies, peanuts, cakes, sugar, lemons, ice cream, oranges and bananas as well as articles for the fishing pond and fancy goods.
